

Indiana Academy Music Scholarship Information

Indiana Academy is pleased to offer this application to students who wish to be considered for a $500 music scholarship. Scholarships are available in the areas of vocal, piano, and/or hand bell experience. This scholarship is available to first-time students only. The following steps are required as part of this application:

➤ Application

The attached application must be completed and returned to Mr. Byrd (IA Music Director).

➤ Recommendation

A letter of recommendation from your current music teacher must be received before your application can be processed.

➤ Audition

Applicants are required to perform a musical solo that displays both the technique and expressive qualities of their abilities. This solo can be submitted in one of several ways:

- In person with Mr. Byrd
- Mailed as a video file on a CD
- Via e-mail.
- or on YouTube

➤ Conditions at IA (once scholarship is received)

In order to continue to build the student's talents and abilities, scholarship recipients will be required to be enrolled in private music lessons throughout the school year. Lessons are a required part of participation in the scholarship program.

Scholarship recipients are required to be members in good standing in their respective performance groups. Recipients must have exemplary attendance and exhibit positive and cooperative attitudes, both inside and outside the music department. Scholarships may be revoked if a student fails to exhibit quality citizenship at Indiana Academy.
